A WORD FROM PASTOR CHARLIE

From my heart...

February of 2024 marks the 4-year anniversary of me accepting the call to pastor this congregation. In some ways, it's hard to believe it's been four years, yet in other ways, the time has flown. This started a new chapter in the life of this church while also launching a new chapter in my family's life. There are always uncertainties and unknowns when something new starts, but from my perspective, the last four years have been a gift from God. It has had challenges, one being starting my pastorate here with the pandemic keeping us from gathering; however, in it all, I have seen God move and work in many special ways.

When I pastor a church, my desire for us is to become like family. I think that is the way the Bible paints the picture of a healthy church. I want to say "thank you" for how you have embraced and loved us from the beginning. Four years in, and I still look forward to every time we gather in pursuit of the Lord. I love the laughs, smiles, and even tears shed as people walk together while following Christ. I love that our church loves being together. This is important because Jesus said the world will know we are his disciples by how we "love one another." This shows not just in the way we love one another but also in our willingness to embrace those who are new in our congregation. I thank God for you.

I know a lot has changed in the last four years. In all the changes, you have been quick to follow and accept the changes with a good attitude. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate that about you. We are a different church today than we were four years ago, and none of us know what God's plan for us is in the future, but if we continue to pursue him together, trusting His Spirit to guide us and love each other along the way, whatever the future holds will be good. I am excited about what lies before us because my experience has been that somewhere around year five, God begins to do great things as we work together. I cannot wait.

I love our staff. I love working alongside them to serve and lead you. I love working with them everyday and the laughs we share, the work we do, the friendships we enjoy, and seeing God work in our midst. We are blessed with a special team of people who love and lead well. Each of them is a blessing in their own special way and has a special set of gifts that God has given them to edify this body. We are blessed.

I love you, thank God for you, and look forward to many more years together. Thank you again for your love and support of my family and me. May we all keep striving to Know Jesus, Follow Jesus, and Become like Jesus and see where his grace leads us into the future. I cannot wait to celebrate another four years with you.

For His Glory and your joy,
