FIRST MOORE BAPTIST CHURCH

NOVEMBER 2022

A WORD FROM PASTOR CHARLIE

A Church on Mission...

First Moore desires to be a church that is impacting the world with the Gospel. We truly want every tribe, nation, and tongue to hear of the goodness of God revealed in Jesus Christ. This means that we have to be active in our community, our state, our nation, and ultimately other parts of the world. While we know that we cannot do everything and reach everyone, we can do something and reach someone. We are currently working on our mission's strategy, which includes ways to serve locally while also providing opportunities for us to partner and go on both national and international trips.

November is our mission's emphasis month, where we want to intentionally focus our attention on ways that you can be a part of impacting the world for Christ. You'll notice this month a variety of things that will be pointing you in the direction of missions. In the foyer of our worship center will be a display set up to inform you about Lottie Moon, who was a missionary many years ago in China. Lottie had a burden for people on another continent to hear about Jesus and uprooted her life to go and tell. Later in the month, you will see flags hanging in our atrium that

Thanksgiving & Missions Banquet

The culmination of our Missions Emphasis Month will be our Missions Banquet on Sunday, November 20. During this night we will enjoy a church-wide Thanksgiving meal, learn about mission endeavors available to us, hear from a panel of missionaries, be challenged by a guest preacher, and worship together. Get your tickets online at firstmoore.com/missions or in person at the Connection Hub or Media Room. Tickets are free if you get them by Sunday, November 13 and $10 after.

Missions Emphasis Offering

During our Missions Banquet we will receive a special offering that will go towards International Missions (Lottie Moon), North American Missions (Annie Armstrong), and State Missions (Edna McMillian). While there will be a specific time for the offering during the banquet, you may give to it any time during the month of November. represent the places that we are currently partnering with to impact with the Gospel. We hope these flags will represent prayer points, as well as be used by God to stir in us to get involved. This will lead us to Sunday evening, November 20th, where we will have our church missions' banquet. That evening we will eat a Thanksgiving meal together and hear about the work that has gone on this last year, as well as what we are planning for 2023. There will also be booths set up for information about how you can get involved. That night we will also take up our mission's offering, where every dollar will go to impact missions from a local to international area.

Take time this month to focus on missions. Join us for our banquet, coming prepared to be engaged and to give. Ask God where He would have you serve as we strive to work collectively together to engage the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

For His glory and your joy,
